

Bill Hanzlik, CEO of The Gold Crown Foundation greets School District # 8 students from all five Fort Carson schools as they arrive at the Science and History Museum in Denver prior to attending a Rockies Game.

SD # 8's Fort Carson Schools guests of The Gold Crown Foundation and Security Services Federal Credit Union

The Gold Crown Foundation and Security Services Federal Credit Union hosted 200 Fountain Fort Carson School District # 8 students (all of the students were from the five schools on Fort Carson) as part of a military appreciation event. Bill Hanzlik, (former Denver Nugget) co – founder / CEO of the Gold Crown Foundation played master of ceremonies, while Bill Beckham of Security Services Federal Credit Union was his behind the scenes partner. Students were picked up in Gray Line charter busses and whisked off to the Denver Science and History Museum where they were treated to an educational afternoon including a viewing in the IMAX Theatre, from there the students and chaperones were provided box lunches from Panera Bread, given commemorative “ Fort Carson Military Day” T- Shirts, and dropped of at the doorstep of Coors Field. Once at the ballpark the entire contingent was provided another Rockies shirt and Hats for their parade around the field as the guests of the Rockies.

SD # 8 Students on the Coors Field big screen as they parade around the outfield prior to the Rockies game

Bill Becker and Bill Hanzlik organizing the students in the IMAX Theatre